11. The UAEG has officially responded to reftel demarche requesting information on whether "Emirates-CAE Flight Training" is an appropriate entity to enter into an international agreement with the FAA.

12. Emirates CAE is considered as an approved training organization, which is authorized to conduct training, testing, or checking on a number of flight simulators and authorized to offer a number of training courses. Emirates-CAE functions in partnership between Emirates Airlines and a Canadian company. The UAE General Civil Aviation Authority (GCA) audits its programs. CAE is also accredited by the British and U.S. Civil Aviation Authorities (for its training programs). The GCA is prepared to sign a memorandum of understanding with the FAA on to audit the training.

13. Comment: We worked this issue through the UAE MFA as well as with the GCA. The GCA has told us that it will be willing to enter into an agreement with the FAA on behalf of Emirates-CAE. If the FAA wishes to pursue this, please provide post with clear instructions and a copy of the agreement that we can pass to the GCA for signature.
